

Registration For the Lee Seminar

I am enrolling for the Lee Seminar to be conducted in Knoxville Tennessee. My check and payment of one-half the tuition is enclosed in the amount of $750.00

I am enrolling for the Lee Seminar to be conducted in Knoxville Tennessee. I am paying the one-half tuition deposit, in the amount of $750.00, by credit card

If you are paying by check; Please make your check payable to: The Lee Seminar and mail with this registration form to: Lee Seminar, LEE Building - 422 South Gay St. Knoxville, Tennessee 37902

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Street Address: _____

City & State: _____ Zip: _____

Law School: _____

Date of Graduation: _____

For whom do you handle cases principally, plaintiffs or defendants? _____

Is there any branch of trial law, apart from personal-injury litigation, in which you have a particular interest? _____

I plan to arrive in Knoxville on: _____

Credit Card: Visa MasterCard American Express

Card #: Card Exp:

Signature

Your application will be accepted within two weeks or your deposit will be returned to you. In the event you are unable to attend, your money will be refunded in full.

The Seminar is conducted in the meeting rooms of the Hyatt Regency, Knoxville. We will make a reservation for your arrival. All rooms are air conditioned and the prices are moderate. Room and meals are not included in your tuition. If your husband or wife is accompanying you, please advise us in order that we may make your reservations accordingly. If your application is accepted, it is understood that the materials taught and furnished in this Seminar are for your exclusive use (except for associate attorneys, of course) and that you will not permit any of these materials to be published or distributed without the permission of the sponsor.

The entire cost of the Seminar, tuition, travel and living expenses are deductible for Federal Income Tax purposes. See Coughlin v. Commissioner, 203 2d 307 (2d Cir. 1953); Treas. Reg. §1.162-5.